Summary of Legislation: This bill raises the penalty for battery from a Class A misdemeanor to a Class D felony if the offense is witnessed by: (1) a minor child or stepchild; or (2) a minor child residing within the household of the victim or of the person who commits the offense. It also raises the penalty for criminal recklessness from a Class B misdemeanor to a Class D felony if the offense is witnessed by: (1) a minor child or stepchild; or (2) a minor child residing within the household of the victim or of the person who commits the offense.

Effective Date: July 1, 1999.

Explanation of State Expenditures: This bill raises two misdemeanor provisions to Class D felony provisions. State expenditures could increase if offenders are incarcerated in state prisons rather than in local jails. A Class D felony is punishable by a prison term ranging between 6 months to 3 years or reduction to Class A misdemeanor. The period of incarceration will depend upon mitigating and aggravating circumstances. The average expenditure to house an adult offender was $20,500 in FY 97. Individual facility expenditures range from $11,000 to $27,000. (This does not include the cost of new construction.) If offenders can be housed in existing facilities with no additional staff, the average cost per offender for medical care, food, and clothing is approximately $1,825 annually or $5 daily. The average length of stay in DOC facilities for all Class D felony offenders is approximately seven months.

Explanation of State Revenues: More revenue to the Common School Fund could be collected if a larger criminal fine is assessed by the sentencing court. The maximum fines for Class A & B misdemeanors are $5,000 and $1,000, respectively, while the maximum fine for a Class D felony is $10,000. Court fees for both misdemeanors and felonies are $120.

Explanation of Local Expenditures: If an offender is sentenced to state prison rather than to a county jail, the costs to the county may be reduced. The maximum term of imprisonment for a Class A misdemeanor is one year, while the term for a Class B misdemeanor is up to 180 days. The average daily cost to incarcerate a prisoner in a county jail is roughly $44.

Explanation of Local Revenues: Court fees for both misdemeanors and felonies are $120.

State Agencies Affected: Department of Correction.

Local Agencies Affected: Trial courts; local law enforcement agencies.
